

A SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM ASPB CHAIR JOHN FREEMAN

Friends,

Arkansas Soybean Month is back, and the Arkansas Soybean Promotion Board is ready to celebrate. We will honor the contributions of Arkansas soybean producers and raise awareness of this row crop's importance to the state economy and its versatile use in the agriculture industry as a whole.

Follow us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram to learn about Arkansas Soybean Month, soybeans and the work of Arkansas soybean producers. Encourage your friends and family to follow the ASPB on social media, too. With your support, more people in Arkansas will know about the hard work producers do to keep Arkansas a top soybean producing state and a top agricultural state.

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS COME - GREETINGS:

WHEREAS: Arkansas farmers harvested three million acres of soybeans in 2021, producing 54 million bushels valued at $4 billion; and

WHEREAS: Soybeans are Arkansas's largest row crop, accounting for more acres than rice, corn, sorghum, and wheat combined; and

WHEREAS: Arkansas ranks as 17th in the nation for soybean production; and

WHEREAS: Soy-based products are an environmentally responsible choice and are available to manufacturers in many industries; and

WHEREAS: Soybeans are among Arkansas's most valuable crops and are important to the economy and the people of our State; and

WHEREAS: The State of Arkansas encourages its citizens to experience soybean agriculture through conversation, a meal, or time with a soybean producer;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ASA HUTCHINSON, Governor of the State of Arkansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws of the State of Arkansas, do hereby proclaim November 2022, as

across the State, and I urge my fellow citizens to observe this month with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Arkansas to be affixed this 4th day of October, in the year of our Lord 2022.
