

- About
- Checkoff Research
- Students
- Grower Tools
- Media Center

2023 Soybean Outlook

Soybean prices have increased from $8.57/bu. in 2019 to $14.00/bu. in 2022. With uncertainty in world markets and drought conditions, it requires most of that price increase to offset the risk. Click below to continue reading this article by Southwest Farm Press.

Read More

Talk Business & Politics

Soybean Prices Surge Fueled by Export Dynamics

Arkansas’ largest crop has been getting a little more valuable as 2023 begins. Soybean prices have trended upward this year due to rising export projections according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Rains in Brazil and expanding hog production in China could fuel further price spikes for the crop that is used for livestock feed in many countries.

Learn More

Featured Research

Soy In Cattle Feed

Dr. Beth Kegley, professor of animal science with the University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture, leads a project investigating the impact of soy products in cattle diets. Specifically, this project focuses on how soy feed affects cattle inflammatory response, health when stressed, and growth. Click the button below to learn more about her team's research.

Watch and Learn More!

Career Snapshot

Hunter Biram

Hunter Biram's passion for agriculture began on his family farm in Floral, Arkansas. Until his freshman year at Arkansas State University, Hunter was unaware of agriculture careers other than farming. Now, after earning a Ph.D. in agricultural economics he's an assistant professor and agricultural economist at the University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture. Hunter builds extension programs to provide unbiased information for producers and educates farmers on field crop risk management for their farms and assets. Learn more about Hunter and how he impacts the agriculture industry by watching his Career Snapshot.

Watch Now!

INDUSTRY NEWS

Big Win for Soy in New York Times

A recent New York Times article debunked several nutrition myths, including soy’s correlation with breast cancer. It also highlighted the benefits of soy consumption, naming soy a “powerhouse of beneficial nutrients” with its link to reduced heart disease and protective effect toward breast cancer risk and survival.

Read the Article

2023 Arkansas Farm Bureau Commodity Meeting

The 2023 Arkansas Farm Bureau Commodity Meeting took place on February 22 in Little Rock. Pictured below, ASPB Secretary-Treasurer Joe Thrash of Perry County delivers a board report to soybean producers.

ASPB Returns to the Mid–South Farm & Gin Show

ASPB attended the 71st Annual Farm & Gin Show in Memphis, TN on February 24th and 25th. If you missed it, check out the pictures below from this year's show.

A graphic for the SRIN Newsletter sign-up. It features a background image of a lush green soybean field under a sunset sky. On the left, a smartphone displays the SRIN website with a "Research Highlights" section. A yellow speech bubble with an exclamation mark icon contains the text: "Stay up to date with new articles and information added to the SRIN website." To the right of the phone, the text "Sign Up for the SRIN Newsletter" is written in large, bold, yellow letters.

Sign Up for the SRIN Newsletter

CONSUMER CORNER

Indulge Yourself With Soyfoods

During National Nutrition Month

March is National Nutrition Month, an observance created by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Explore the benefits of sustainable soyfoods as you make better food choices, and develop better-for-you eating habits. Soyfoods add complete plant protein to your diet without the added cholesterol. Soyfoods suit active lifestyles, too. The next time you're out for a swim, hike or bike ride, fuel up with delicious, healthy recipes like:

- Soynut Trail Mix
- Basil Edamame Pesto
- Ranch Tofu Dip
- Creamy Soy-based Apple Vinaigrette

Get the Recipes

More Soy For Kids: 5 Kid-Friendly Soyfoods Every Family Should Try

The protein found in soyfoods offers essential amino acids, making it a complete protein, and soy is an affordable way to incorporate more plant-based foods and protein into your family's diet.

Soy Diet Ideas

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Commodity Classic
March 9th – 11th

World Agri-Tech Innovation Summit
March 14th – 15th

CONEXPO/CONAGG
March 14th – 18th

The Sustainability Consortium Summit
March 28th – 30th

SNI Global Spring Meeting
March 29th – 31st

SEE THE FULL CALENDAR OF EVENTS
HERE

FOLLOW US ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Arkansas Soybean Promotion Board | P.O. Box 31, Little Rock, AR 72203

Unsubscribe chorn@comgroup.com

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent byarkansassoybeans@gmail.compowered by

Try email marketing for free today!